A DAY IN THE LIFE OF A SENIOR EFL TEACHER

This will give you a taste of what life is like on a typical day as a Senior EFL Teacher*

7:30	I have breakfast and catch up with my colleagues. Coffee is a must at this time!
8:30	I attend a meeting with the other teachers and DOS to run through any last minute changes and lesson plans
9:00 - 12:30	I am teaching in the morning, making sure my lessons are fun and engaging for the students.
12:30 - 13:30	Now it is time for a well-earned lunch break.
14:00 - 14:30	I have a brief catch up with my DOS on the administrative requirements for the afternoon. I will have to move a few students to a new class, check absences and make sure the welfare team are informed. We also discuss ways to help teachers that are behind on their paperwork
14:30 - 15:30	I plan my lessons for tomorrow.
16:00 - 17:30	Whilst the teachers are in their final lesson for the day, I make sure their paperwork is all up-to-date, including: checking absence records; schemes of work; attendance and evaluations
18:00 - 19:00	I have offered my support to a newly qualified teacher who is anxious about not having enough material. This 'supervised lesson planning session' is a great opportunity to help develop the skills of the teacher and offer guidance based on my own experiences
19:30	Before I finish for the day I have a learner support session to answer students' questions and offer some guidance where necessary.
20:00	I have a quick sit down with the DOS to chat through the day's events and we discuss the plan of action for tomorrow

*Please note that the levels taught may change and lesson times given may vary to meet the operational demands of each centre
