

SUMMER 2020

Rates of Pay

Students from all over the world come to study with us. Our summer programmes typically combine 15 hours of English language tuition per week and a comprehensive programme of activities and excursions. Groups and individuals tend to stay for two weeks at a time. In most centres, the students are able to bolt on extra academic or activity electives.

Accommodation Deductions

Activity Leaders are deducted £55.00 per week for accommodation.

Holiday Pay

12.07% holiday pay is added to your weekly rate as you are not entitled to take holiday during your contract.

Non-residential Roles

Some non-residential roles are available, please enquire for rates of pay.

Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS)

If required, the full cost of a DBS (£50.00) will be deducted from your pay. If you return the following year, you will receive 50% of this back.

Qualifications

Aligning with the British Council criteria, TEFLi qualified teachers are those who hold a CELTA, Trinity TESOL and/or QTS in English or a Modern Foreign Language as well as a completed Level 6 qualification (Bachelor's degree). Other TEFL qualifications may be accepted if they have been validated by an external body and include a minimum of 6 hours observed teaching practice.

*Roles will receive a £10 returning increment per week on top of this total if returning to the same role in 2019 (1 consecutive year). A £20 returning increment will be added if returning to the same role as 2018 (2 consecutive years).
