

HI AND WELCOME TO THE MASTERS 2020!

We hope you have all seen the guidelines launch and are very excited for the Masters 2020!

As we want to keep you updated as we get closer to the 2020 competition, we are revealing one of the most important things, where the competition will take place.

Royal Hospital School

One of only two boarding schools where students have the honour of wearing a Naval uniform, this stunning campus is on the banks of the River Stour, in Ipswich. All the boarding houses are named after famous Naval captains including Nelson, so named to honour Admiral Nelson and his famous victory in the Battle of Trafalgar in 1805.

Benenden School

Benenden School has been one of the leading boarding schools in Britain for the last 90 years. Nestled in an idyllic location in the middle of the Garden of England, Kent, Benenden is set amidst a beautiful parkland. With a range of fantastic venues and sports facilities, your group will definitely have a British experience here!
