

Spring - The Masters

The Masters is a challenging two week residential business course for ambitious students aged 16 – 19 at Easter. Ideal for students interested in becoming global business leaders, the course is modelled on Ivy League/ Oxbridge MBA programmes and formats such as 'Dragons' Den' and 'The Apprentice' – where real life entrepreneurs present their ideas to a board of expert investors and business people.

Highlights

- Input sessions delivered by business teachers and project development session to prepare pitch presentation
- Two extended full days to London and one full day to Oxford or Cambridge
- Business visit to UK based company

Dates

Start: 31 March

End: 12 April

Location

The MASTERS 2023 will be held at one of our prestigious Universities or boarding schools in the UK. All centres are slightly different but they all include grand venue spaces, picturesque dining halls, spacious classrooms and numerous sports facilities. Groups will find out which centre they have been allocated towards February 2023.

Accommodation

- A mixture of single and multi-bedded rooms are available depending on the centre

How does the competition work?

- Groups who wish to join the MASTERS can register their interest and receive a set of guidelines. The guidelines detail tips for preparing students before arrival and the full brief is announced on arrival to the UK.
- Each group enters the competitions as a collective team.

- To determine the overall winner, teams have to compete in qualifying and semifinal rounds, top teams then compete in a grand final judged by a panel of business experts.
- There are other prizes available, MASTERS Best Presentation, Talent Show Winners and the popular Fair Play award, voted for by the group leaders and awarded to the school felt to best represent the values of the MASTERS programme.
