English for the 21st Century:

The goal of this syllabus is to offer engaging lessons to boost students' confidence, divided into Language Study and Language in Use. Language Study focuses on English language fundamentals, enhancing communicative competence through vocabulary expansion and practical application in real-world contexts. Weekly Review lessons involve language recycling through role plays or extended activities. Language In Use lessons aim to cultivate transferable skills for life outside the classroom, with a British focus on cultural aspects and collaborative, creative projects.
